DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The complaint amendment filed December 5, 2008, is noted with appreciation.
2. Claims 1-4 and 6-10 remain pending.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed July 22, 2008, have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

A. Applicant argues that WO '805 fails to teach a poly(meth)acrylate ester having a group capable of being activated by ultraviolet radiation. The Examiner disagrees. WO '805 expressly teaches that the alkyl(meth)acrylate polymer may be a polymer of 2-ethylhexyl (meth)acrylate. 2-ethylhexyl acrylate is an acrylate ester as taught, for example, by US 5,552,451 A at 4:16-18. Further, WO '805 teaches irradiating the precursor with UV radiation [12:30-13:32]. While the reference does not expressly refer to activating a group with the UV radiation, this is not required by the claims. The claim merely requires that the group be capable of activation, but not actually activating the group. Furthermore, the nature and extent of the activation is not expressly defined. While the instant specification teaches that said activation can generate a free radical, it is not required. Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). It is the Examiner's position that any of the pendant ester groups in poly(2-ethylhexyl) acrylate are capable of some form of activation (i.e., elevation of an electron from a lower-energy molecular orbital to a higher energy molecular orbital) upon UV irradiation. Consequently, this argument is not persuasive.

B. Applicant further traverses the obviousness-type double patenting rejection. The Examiner disagrees. The disclosure of US '354 is the same as WO '805, including poly(2-ethylhexyl) acrylate as an expressly disclosed embodiment, which meets the limitations of the claim as set-forth above. In a double-patenting rejection, those portions of the specification which provide support for the patent claims may also be examined and considered when addressing the issue of whether a claim in the application defines an obvious variation of an invention claimed in the patent. See In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 441-42, 164 USPQ 619, 622 (CCPA 1970). Consequently, this argument is not persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

5. Claims 1-4 and 6-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 01/64805 A2.

A. These claims remain rejected as set forth under this heading in the prior Office action and as further explained above.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claim 10 is rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 12 of U.S. Patent No. 6,660,354, for the reasons set forth under this heading in the prior Office action and as further explained above.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
